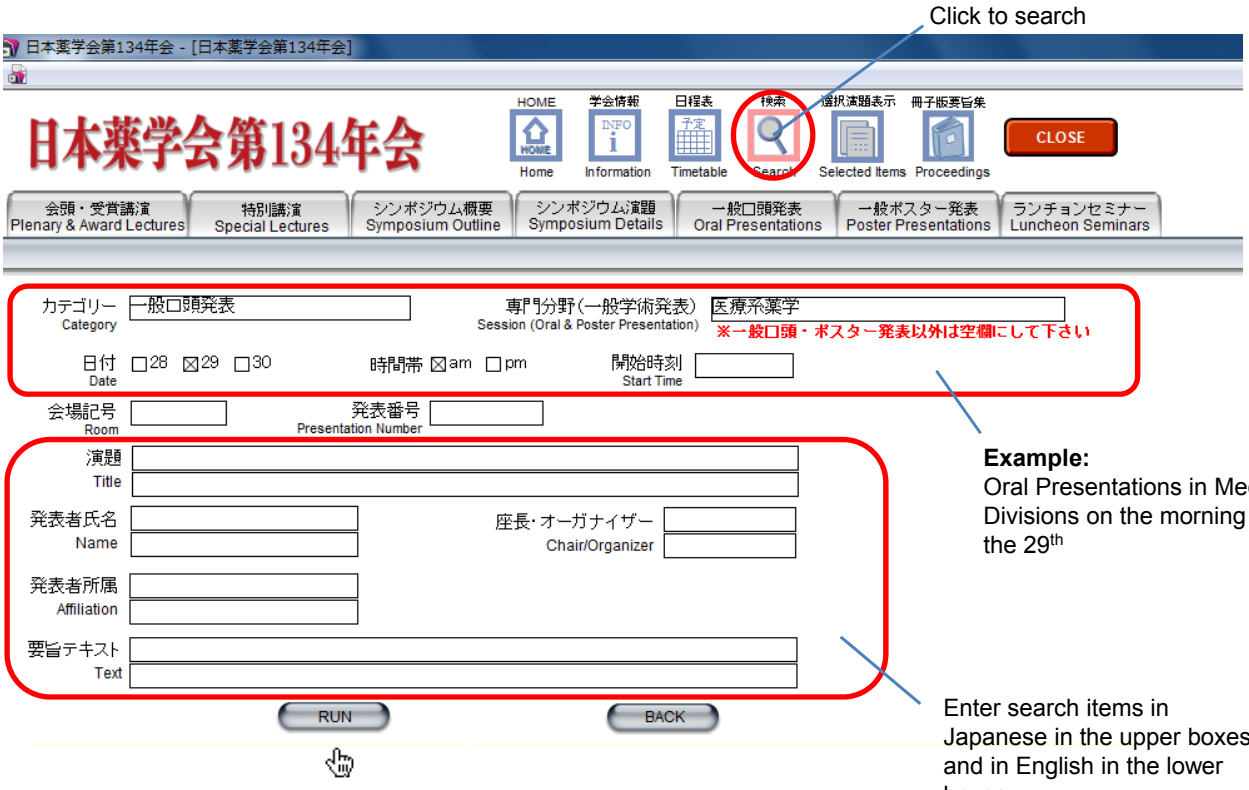
4. Full-Text Search

- The DVD's search engine has full-text functionality similar to Google
- Keyword searching allows refined searches of lectures and presentations



Example:
Oral Presentations in Medical Divisions on the morning of the 29th

Enter search items in Japanese in the upper boxes and in English in the lower boxes

Click on Run button after inputting information

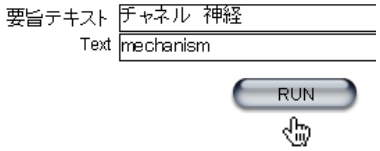
Search Hints

- ✓ Several words can be entered in a search box for a more refined search
- ✓ There is no autofill form function, so search terms must be reentered each time



Search results are displayed in a list. To save a title, click Select

If your computer is slow when retrieving Details, change format to TEXT

5. Confirming and printing out selected titles and timetable

- To view the list of titles you have saved, click on Selected Items
- To print, click List Print

- In the Timetable, the titles you have selected are highlighted in blue (most information is shown only in Japanese)

CLOSE Selected titles are saved automatically whenever the page is closed

Enjoy the conference!
